It should be pointed out the FBI's domestic experience has been that virtually all such disclosures occurred due to human factors as opposed to technical operations. There has been a recent "computer hacker" case involving FBI interests where an individual whose interest was simply computer penetration and the challenge and thrill to the commission of the act itself compromised some FBI computer networks. This incident is still being adjudicated.

Any further requests regarding your inquiry should be directed to Section Chief Ivian C. Smith at

Dear Jim:

I missed talking to you in the last few days when you were out of town and wanted to be sure that my gratitude for your significant contribution to [redacted] was conveyed to you. Without your strong and constant support, we might not have been able to make the transition successfully. I and the FBI are most appreciative.

b3

We still have a road to travel on [redacted] area will make that road much easier.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Dear [Redacted]

I missed you by phone earlier this morning and am writing to insure that you know of my gratitude, and that of the FBI, for your tremendous contribution to [Redacted] with which we have been confronted over these many months.

b3

Your contribution to that effort was a critical one. Without the successful performance of it, we could not have succeeded.

We have a ways to go yet [Redacted] but I am confident that this milestone will make the road much easier.

Again, my thanks and admiration for your performance.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,
